

USC Price

Sol Price School of Public Policy

DESCRIPTION

USC Price will provide advanced graduate training for a select group of Republic of Korea employees. Applicants with outstanding academic credentials, strong English skills, recommendations, and financial support from the Korean government may qualify for a scholarship from USC Price. Awards are disbursed $12,000 in the first year and $12,000 in the second year, assuming satisfactory academic progress. All Korean Government Officials receiving the Republic of Korea National Assembly Long-Term Fellowship will be automatically considered. Students pursuing the two-year program complete an internship; students pursuing the MPA dual degree with Seoul National University do not complete an internship.

ELIGIBILITY

Must plan to enroll in the MPA, MUP, or MPP programs for the fall semester.

Must apply by the required deadline.

Scholarship renews assuming satisfactory academic progress and at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA

HOW TO APPLY

To apply, please complete the USC Graduate Application for Admission by the January 15th deadline.

Questions? Contact John Mendoza, Assistant Director of Scholarships:

(213) 740-4127

jdmendoz@usc.edu