Mary C. Daly

President and Chief Executive Officer, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco

Mary C. Daly leads the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, the largest and most diverse Federal Reserve District, home to one fifth of the nation's population. In this role, Daly charts a vision of the Bank as a premier public service organization dedicated to promoting an economy that works for all Americans and supporting the nation's financial and payment systems. She is at the forefront of the Federal Reserve System's price stability and full employment mandates as a member of the monetary policy-setting Federal Open Market Committee.

Daly assumed leadership of the San Francisco Fed in October 2018, building on a distinguished career at the Bank that began in 1996. Starting as an economist specializing in labor market dynamics and economic inequality, she has since served as research advisor, VP and head of macroeconomics, SVP and assistant director of research, and EVP and director of research.

Daly's leadership is underpinned by her belief in "3D public service," the need for public servants to be fully human—vulnerable, compassionate, optimistic, and pragmatic—to help solve the most pressing issues of our time. As a leader dedicated to raising the profile of public service, Daly has served on numerous advisory boards, including the Congressional Budget Office, the Social Security Administration, the Office of Rehabilitation Research and Training and the Institute of Medicine, among others.

Daly earned a Ph.D. from Syracuse University, a master's degree from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, and a bachelor's degree from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. She also completed a National Institute of Aging post-doctoral fellowship at Northwestern University.
