Sol Price School of Public Policy

USC Sol Price School of Public Policy
Department of Governance, Management, and the Policy Process
Assistant or Associate Professor

The University of Southern California's Price School of Public Policy invites nominations and applications for a tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor with an emphasis in public management, to begin August 2019. Candidates should possess a doctorate or PhD in any related field to public administration. We are seeking a scholar to contribute to the Department of Governance, Management, and the Policy Process, teach in our highly ranked Master of Public Administration program, and contribute to the overall mission of the Price School. In line with that mission, applicants should include a succinct statement on how they can help foster an environment of diversity and inclusion. The ideal applicant will have a prominent research record in public management. The applicant should have excellent teaching skills. Applicants should also submit the names of three references.

About the USC Price School of Public Policy

The mission of the Sol Price School of Public Policy is to improve the quality of life for people and their communities, here and abroad. We achieve this mission through education and research that promote innovative solutions to the most critical issues facing society, with a particular focus on governance, urban development, and social policy. In 2017 the USC Sol Price School of Public Policy was ranked No. 2 overall in Best Graduate Schools for Public Affairs, published by U.S. News & World Report. The School offers Ph.D. programs in Public Policy and Management and Urban Planning; masters' degrees in Public Administration, Public Policy, Urban Planning, Health Administration, Real Estate Development, and Nonprofit Leadership and Management; executive masters' degrees; and an interdisciplinary undergraduate degree. USC is one of the nation's premiere research universities and Price ranks third overall in funded research on a per faculty basis. Much of the school's research is conducted through its centers, institutes, and research groups. Among them are the Bedrosian Center on Governance and the Public Enterprise, the Center on Philanthropy and Public Policy, the Price Center on Social Innovation, the Schwarzenegger Institute for State and Global Policy, the Center for Economic Development, the Center for Sustainable Cities, the National Center for Metropolitan Transportation Research, the Lusk Center for Real Estate, and the Center for Risk and Economic Analysis of Terrorism Events (CREATE), the country's first Homeland Security Center of Excellence. Annual sponsored research volume approximates $80 million. For additional information, see our website: <https://priceschool.usc.edu/>
