

Additional USC Resources

- Academic Integrity Handout: Student Judicial Affairs and Community Standards for Academic Integrity.
- USC Academic Calendar : Class registration, exam dates and holidays can be found here.
- Asian Pacific American Student Services: Facilitates participation, dialogue, community-building, and empowerment, while serving as a source of cross-cultural educational programming for the entire campus.
- Career Center: Provides a variety of resources to enhance your career development as you pursue your advanced degree at USC.
- Center for Black Cultural & Student Affairs: Works toward creating an optimal learning environment for students of African descent and the Trojan family at large.
- Department of Public Safety: Provides a safe and secure environment on campus and in the local USC community. dps.usc.edu
- Disability Services & Programs: Provides support services necessary to enable students with disabilities to develop their maximum academic potential while having the dignity to work independently.
- El Centro Chicano: Offers student advocacy, personal support, assistance for Latina/o student groups, and transitional/beyond USC programming.
- Engemann Student Health Center: Offers a full range of medical services in primary and specialty care, counseling services, health promotion and disease prevention.
- First-Generation Plus Success Center: The First Generation Plus Success Center at USC (FG+SC) serves as a resource hub for current first-generation, undocumented, and former foster youth students as they navigate campus.
- Graduate Student Government: Serves USC graduate and professional students and helps students promote events, finance travel to educational conferences, and provide student organization funding.

- Kortschak Center for Learning and Creativity: Provides enhanced academic support services through individual learning strategy sessions, tutoring in academic disciplines, and assistive technology for students with identified learning disorders.
- LBGT Resource Center: Provides support, education, and advocacy for LGBT and Ally undergraduate and graduate students at USC.
- Libraries Appointment: Schedule a personal meeting with USC librarians to find academic resources
- Living in Los Angeles Guide: A guide to getting around Los Angeles.
- Mindful USC: All mindfulness classes are free to USC students, staff and faculty
- Office of Campus Activities: Sponsors services, programs and events to educate, advocate, entertain and challenge students and oversees over 800 student organizations.
- Office of International Students: Serves international students and visiting scholars through services, programs, and resources.
- Office of Religious and Spiritual Life: Sponsors a variety of opportunities for exploring the spiritual dimensions of your life and learning.
- Recreational Sports: Provides the university community the opportunity to pursue a balanced, healthy lifestyle through participation in recreational activities.
- Relationship and Sexual Violence Prevention and Services: Provides immediate therapy services for situations related to gender and power-based harm. On-call counselors aid in discussing medical options, reporting options and provide crisis support and advocacy.
- Slack: USC Slack is a collaboration and communication hub for students, faculty and staff that helps teams work together and collaborate with people online as efficiently as they do face-to-face. With Slack, groups can collaborate within channels that are focused on a specific topic which could be a course, a project, a club, a committee or whatever else is needed.
- Student Counseling Services: Dedicated to providing a broad range of quality programs to assist students including short-term psychotherapy, group counseling and crisis intervention.
- Student Judicial Affairs & Community Standards: Investigates and adjudicates matters regarding the USC community standards.
- Student Support and Advocacy: Assists students and families in resolving complex issues which adversely affect a student's academic success and/or collegiate experience.

- SCampus: All students are expected to become familiar with and adhere to the policies, rules, regulations, and standards of conduct outlines in SCampus.
- The Volunteer Center: Dedicated to promoting service within USC, the greater Los Angeles area, and the global community as a whole.
- Trojans Care for Trojans: Provides a private and anonymous service for students to express their concerns about members of the Trojan Family and offers connections to institutional support and resources for Trojans coping with personal difficulties.
- USC Campus Map: A map of the University Park campus.
- USC Self-Guided Tour: Provides destinations for a self-guided tour of the University Park campus.
- Veterans Resource Center: Provides a space for socializing, programming, and assistance with veterans affairs related topics.
- Writing Center: Contribute to the development of better writers, and to assist with the skills and processes of critical thinking, drafting, and revising that lead to clearly expressed positions, coherent arguments, and persuasive reasoning.